To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Sam Lindsey for future employment opportunities. I had the opportunity to work with Sam at Green House Sales and Marketing from August 2025 to March 2026, where he served as both a Project Manager and Operations Manager.

Sam stood out quickly because of his drive to grow, his willingness to take on additional responsibility, and his ability to execute tasks with minimal oversight. He has a genuine hunger to learn and brings a high level of energy to his work. He is coachable, eager, and a quick study, which made him a valuable member of our team.

One of the best examples of Sam's impact was his role in our migration from Monday.com to ClickUp. This was an important operational transition for our team, and Sam helped move the project forward with focus, problem solving, and attention to detail. He was able to take direction, think critically, and get things done without needing constant oversight.

Sam is still growing as a leader, but I believe that is one of the most exciting things about him. He has the traits needed to become a strong leader, especially with continued mentorship and opportunities to coach others. He is a problem solver in the making, and I have confidence that he will continue to develop quickly in the right environment.

I would gladly recommend Sam to any organization looking for someone who is hardworking, coachable, motivated, and ready to contribute. He has a strong foundation, a great attitude, and the drive to keep improving.

Sincerely,

Jordan Brandon
